

The diagram illustrates Maslow's hierarchy of needs as a pyramid with five horizontal layers. From top to bottom, the layers are: yellow (top), light green, blue, purple, and red (bottom). Each layer is wider at the base and tapers towards the top. To the right of the pyramid, the corresponding need level is written in black text. The layers are: Autoerrealizazioa (yellow), Estimua (light green), Giza harremanak (blue), Segurtasuna (purple), and Beharrizan fisiologikoak (red).
